MECHANISM OF THE POLICY:

(A) RAISING A CONCERN:

- Whistle blowing mechanism should be used for potentially serious or sensitive issues.
- The background and history of the concern, giving names, dates and places where possible, should be set out and the reason why the individual is particularly concerned about the situation. Those who do not feel able to put their concern in writing can telephone or meet the appropriate officer.
- The complainant is not expected to prove the truth of allegation, but should be able to demonstrate that there are sufficient grounds for concern. Employees must raise concerns immediately. This will support investigation process and enable faster implementation of corrective actions, if any.
- Advice and guidance on how matters of concern may be pursued can be obtained from the Company Secretary.

B) PROCEDURE:

- Upon receipt of a concern, an initial enquiry will be made to decide whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form it should take. Some concerns may also be resolved by an agreed action without the need for investigation.
- After the concern has been evaluated, the Company will write to the complainant:
 - acknowledging that the concern has been received;
 - indicating how it is proposed to be dealt with;
 - informing whether further investigations will take place, and if not, why not.
- The amount of contact between the body considering the issues and the complainant will depend on the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved and the clarity of the information provided. If necessary, further information will be sought from the complainant.
- The Company will take steps to protect the Whistle Blower from victimisation and minimise any difficulties which a person reporting under Whistle Blowing may experience as a result of raising a concern.
- The Company accepts and would take such steps as may be required to assure the Whistle Blower that the matter has been appropriately addressed.
